Memorial is a story about a tree planted beside a war memorial monument in a small country town by returned servicemen. Years on, the tree has grown to be huge and unruly, dislodging the statue next to it and creating a traffic hazard in what is now a much larger busier town. Comments on Memorial: Gary Crew and I collaborated. Shaun's early solo work and collaborations with John Marsden. The Rabbits and Gary Crew. The viewer and memorial established him as a leading creator of sophisticated picture books. In 1992, Shaun won the International Illustrators of the Future contest. The first Australian to achieve this award. The Watertower is a science fiction horror fantasy story. It was written by Gary Crew, illustrated by Steven Woolman. Paulsen 1995 suggests one of the reasons Crew teamed up with Woolman was because of the illustrator's interest in the macabre bizarre fantasy and old B grade science fiction.
