Woman Hollering Creek and other stories is a book of short stories published in 1991 by San Antonio based Mexican American writer Sandra Cisneros. The collection reflects Cisneros's experience of being surrounded by American influences while still being familial bound to her Mexican heritage as she grew up north of the Mexico-US border. Sandra Cisneros's Mericans is about a young American girl of Mexican descent who is struggling to find her own cultural identity. Sandra Cisneros illustrates this through a number of images and ideas. For example, the speaker Micaela calls her grandmother awful and seems to resent the woman's strict views and religious ideals.
