The merit badge counselor sets a date and time to meet with the Scout and his buddy and may suggest the Scout bring the merit badge pamphlet along with the blue card. The blue card is the nationally recognized merit badge record. This tool makes the recordkeeping easier for the Scout, the merit badge counselor, and the unit leader.

Advancement is the process by which youth members of the Boy Scouts of America progress from rank to rank. Every Scout activity moves a youth toward three basic aims: character development, citizenship training, and mental and physical fitness. Advancement is one of the eight methods used by Scout leaders to help Scouts fulfill the aims of the BSA. Refer to the Guide to Advancement for the most up-to-date requirements.
